BFF: Boyfriend's Family

BIL: Brother-in-law

Blue Ribbon Cruiser: 3,000 posts

Borinken: the "Indigena" (Indians = Taínos, first habitants of the island) name for Puerto Rico. ('Amcg96' shared the definition.)

BTB (B2B): Back-to-Back

C&A: Crown & Anchor Club

CBRF: 'MaryF888': In Wisconsin, a CBRF (Community Based Residential Facilities) is an adult family home, for those persons who can't live on their own. Kind-of-like a small scale assisted-living facility that looks more like a house. Read more at

CC: CruiseCritic

CCL: Carnival Cruise Lines

CD: Cruise Director

Color Coding: 'Getty50', Sep/24/09: The cruise lines always color code the sailing; green, blue, yellow, and red. Green means that the ship is almost empty, blue means plenty of cabins left, yellow means the ship is starting to sell out, and red means that it is sold out. You have to be a travel agent to see the color coding.

D: Diamond, 10 cruise credits

D+: Diamond Plus, 25 cruise credits

DBF: Dear Boyfriend

DD: Dear Dad or Dear Daughter based upon the gender of the person being discussed.

DH: Dear husband

DI: Diamond member, 10 cruise credits

DIL: Daughter-in-law

DSLR Camera: In a Digital Single Lens Reflex (DSLR), the subject is viewed through the same lens as the picture is taken with. A mirror is raised when the shutter button is pressed, allowing light to reach the image sensor. Most DSLR cameras use interchangeable lenses and resemble 35 mm format cameras.

DM: Dear Mom

DR: Dining Room

DS: Dear Son or Dear Sister, depending upon the gender.

DW: Dear wife

EGBAR: Everything's Gonna Be All Right

F2F: Friday-to-Friday, usually a 'land cruise' — AKA a week-long on-land vacation.

FIL: Father-in-law

FOAF: Friend of a friend.

FOTS: Freedom of the Seas

GF: Girlfriend

GPS: Global Positioning System; a system which enables a mobile receiver to determine its precise location based on signals received from a constellation of US military satellites. 'Radio' (a respected, well-known cruiser), Aug/7/09: I am using a Garmin GPSMap76CSx, a Delorme LT-40 (Wired GPS Receiver), and a Delorme BT-20 (Wireless Bluetooth Receiver) for a position indicator while onboard. The ship's TV Nav Channel is not very accurate.

GS: Grand Suite

GTY: A guaranteed cabin — you are just guaranteed a cabin of that category somewhere on the ship, usually at a discount versus booking a specific cabin you want. ['DarthGrady', Sep/3/09]

H1N1: AKA "Swine Flu"

HR: Hard Rock Café

JS: Junior Suite

LMAO:

Lurk: To read a Message Board, but not contribute. Some are lurkers since they feel inferior, some since they feel superior, and some since their contributions were rejected or ridiculed.

M&M: Meet & Mingle, meeting where CC members get together. On 7-day or longer cruises, the line provides a room with hors d'oeuvres and non-alcoholic drinks; not to be confused with informal meetings.)

MCO: Orlando Airport

MDR: Main Dining Room

MIL: Mother-in-law

MOOSE KISS: It's a cup of hot chocolate with a shot of Baily's and a shot of Kahlua. It's served on the cruises to Alaska. ['Marcel8004, Sep/5/09']

MTD: My Time Dining, AKA Any Time Dining (ATD); You can dine every night at the same time or any other time that you like.
