While left-clicking on the Sound icon, on your TaskBar, will let you quickly adjust the volume of sounds such as music, it will not let you adjust the sounds of some Internet movies and sounds.

This is how to do that.

1. Open the Volume Control
(Figure 1):

- ❶ RIGHT-click on sound icon.
- ❷ Left-click on “Open Volume Control” option.

2. Left-click and drag the volume under “Wave” until you have the volume you want (Figure 2).

NOTE: Your options, in Figure 2, may look slightly different, but the selections are about the same.
